Weeks of May 22-27, 2017

Interesting Facts for the Week

Armadillos have four babies at a time and they are always identical quadruplets.

Ping Pong is the national sport of China.

The average human sheds 1.5 pounds of skin each year. By 70 years of age that amounts to about 105 pounds. Humans shed and re-grow outer skin cells about every 27 days—about 1000 new skins in a lifetime.

Leonardo da Vinci could draw with one hand and write with the other—at the same time.

- ⊙ FYI—The teacher workdays on August 22nd and 23rd are tentatively scheduled for 8:00 to 3:30. That schedule may be longer, but it won't be shorter. Due to designating our Fall Festival as a workday, we've cut our first of school workday number by one day...so, we've got a lot to cover.
- ⊙ Reminder—All expenditures for school need to be approved before they are purchased.

"Don't be a grouch. He's been waiting all day for you to smoke that."

- ⊙ Reminder—We will be cleaning carpets in classrooms this year, so make sure everything is organized (in such a way that it is easy to move out into the hallway) while that takes place.
- ⊙ If you have any work that needs to be addressed during the summer, let me know before you leave this week for summer break. Some of you have mentioned some things already, so please remind me sometime this week, please.
